WIRZ TO BE HANGED—HIS SENTENCE COMMUNICATED TO HIM.

We announced yesterday the fact of Wirz having been sentenced to be hung on yesterday—and we suppose that by this time he has gone to meet his Maker to be judged. The following is an account we have received of the communication of his fate to him.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7, 1865.

Yesterday afternoon, about four o'clock, Gen. Augur commanding the Department of Washington, accompanied by Major Russell, Provost Marshal, and Capt. George R. Walbridge, Commandant of the Old Capitol prison, proceeded to Captain Wirz's room, and having informed him of his unpleasant errand, read to him the death sentence and the time fixed for his execution—namely, Friday next, between the hours of six in the morning and noon. The prisoner listened to the reading with much apparent composure, when General Augur asked him whether he had anything to say, to which question the prisoner replied, "I have nothing to say except that I desire to state to you that I am innocent of the charges brought against me."—Having been asked about his wife he remarked that she was in Kentucky, and hardly could come here in time; besides he did not wish to witness the trouble in which she would be plunged at seeing him in his extremity.

The prisoner made a request that the Rev. Father Boyle and Louis Schade, Esq., of his counsel should be sent for, which was granted. Before the officers retired Captain Wirz is represented as saying: "I have been persecuted, and if there is such a thing as a spirit coming back to earth I'll come back to persecute those who have persecuted themselves to hang me."

To-day Father Boyle, who had previously visited him during his imprisonment, was in attendance and talked to him long and earnestly with reference to his spiritual interests.

In the afternoon Mr. Schade called to see the prisoner, who told him that he had slept better than he had any time since he was brought to Washington. He was glad to be out of suspense; for he had desired to know his fate.

Three days ago he prepared a letter to be sent to President Johnson, requesting his decision at once, to relieve him of all anxiety. He made up his mind to suffer, but his anguish was now over, and he had no fear to meet his Maker, knowing that he was to be made a sacrifice to suffer for the deeds of others. He felt resigned, and believed that in all instances justice would be done to him hereafter.

He stated that Father Boyle had asked him to forgive all who had testified against him, and who Captain Wirz said had perjured themselves. Captain Wirz replied that though he was given up to die, he could not conscientiously do so, as he was opposed to his lips uttering a sentiment of forgiveness that did not come from his heart in humility. His lips must utter forgiveness of his persecutors, but he could not be a hypocrite at heart.

Mr. Schade asked Captain Wirz if he desired any money, he being in feeble health and fed on prison fare. The prisoner said he had only three days to live; three dollars would be sufficient—which amount Mr. Schade handed to the officers.

A MAN MURDERED IN HIS OWN BED ROOM.

During the forenoon of yesterday, the dead body of Mr. John Connell, a native of Ireland, aged apparently about fifty years, was found in his room in the third story of the building known as the Franklin Hotel, on Red Cross street. Mr. Connell was employed as a watchman at the depot of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad, and has been missing since Tuesday, the 31st ultimo. Those who saw the body, represented it to be the most awful sight they ever witnessed. His head and face were considerably swollen, and so completely covered with blood as to render it a first difficult to identify. Yesterday afternoon Coroner J. C. Wood summoned a jury and proceeded at once to the scene of the murder, for the purpose of holding an inquest.

The investigation continued until after night-fall when the jury postponed the further examination of the case until 10 A. M., to-day. We understand that suspicion rests upon a certain party, and that an order for his arrest has been issued. The case will probably be concluded to-day, and in Monday's issue will appear a full account of the facts as developed before the jury of inquest.

ded to-day, and in Monday's issue will appear a full account of the facts as developed before the jury of inquest.

AN EXTRAORDINARY STORY.—A Nashville paper tells an extraordinary story of an occurrence at the siege of Atlanta, Ga. The city had become accustomed to the bombardment, business and pleasure were suspended, and dullness reigned. Some officers to relieve the monotony arranged for a masked ball at one of the hospitals. One lady who attended was murdered by an officer of high rank, but his name has never been revealed. She was found strangled, and an inquest was held and several parties implicated in the crime. The evacuation of the city, however, interrupted the course of justice, and the tragedy passed into a whisper and mere gossip. The Confederate Maj. Gen. Wharton, whose name has somewhat become associated with the murder, was not in Atlanta at the time. Most of the officers and many of the ladies who attended that ball are now in their graves, and the murderer probably will never be judged on earth. Breadstuffs advancing and prices higher. Provisions scarce.

The body of Mr. James Lounds, an estimable citizen of Baltimore, was found floating in Chesapeake Bay on Thursday night. A jury of inquest was held yesterday, and a verdict of accidental death rendered. The deceased visited Norfolk about two weeks ago, and is supposed to have fallen overboard while on his return home.

Ex-Gov. John L. Manning and Gov. Perry are the U. S. Senators elect from South Carolina. The former for the short and the latter for the long term.

Crops Throughout the Country.

Isaac Newton, Commissioner of Agriculture, in his report for October says that the threshing of the wheat has shown that the injuries from wet weather were overestimated. In the report for August the returns of the wheat crop showed that in quantity and quality there was a deficit of 26,241,698 bushels, that the estimates now made which are final, exhibit the decrease under last year's crop in quantity to be 12,172,994 bushels. The increase in the oat crop in 1865 is nearly 50,000,000 bushels, and of hay more than 5,000,000 tons. The tables exhibit the fall crops as most abundant. That of corn is all that could be desired. It will be the largest ever grown in the United States, so that plenty of cereal food will bless the country and the tables of the farmer. The corn crop is equally good in the Southern States, and its planting there is so much greater than ordinary, that that section can consume only a portion of the amount grown; and it can, therefore, the Commissioner says, devote the next crop season to a greater production of cotton.

The Trial of Mr. Davis.

In Washington we learn that there is the highest authority for stating that the Cabinet has had under consideration for some days the question of the trial of Jefferson Davis. The Cabinet are by no means a unit as to the course to be adopted. The President is said to be opposed to his trial by military commission, while several members are known to favor that mode of trial. It is also known that Chief Justice Chase is not desirous of presiding at his trial. Definite action will probably be arrived at in his case in a few days. A letter from Washington in another column gives us additional information on the subject.

Suspension of a Governor.

A telegram from Jackson Mississippi informed us that governor Sharkey has received a dispatch from Secretary Seward, announcing that he is expected to exercise the functions of Governor of Mississippi until further orders from Washington.

General Humphreys had but a few days before been regularly installed as Governor of Mississippi and had in an official character addressed the Legislature. The action of the authorities at Washington of course forbids all further official action on his part for the present.

TERRIBLE DISTRESS AT GIBRALTER.—Our readers are already aware of the existence of cholera at Gibraltar, and the extent of which its ravages have gone, but few are acquainted with the distress which has resulted indirectly from it. On the latter point a writer in the London Times says: "The Spanish authorities have established a cordon across the slip of semi desert which separates Gibraltar from the interior. No one is allowed to pass either from or to the rock. Not only so, but for the same reason—the prevalence of cholera—no ships from Gibraltar are allowed to enter any Spanish port.—Thus on all hands, the rock people are cut off from their kind. The inhabitants of Gibraltar mainly depend upon their trade with Algeiras and other ports. And now that this is stopped and all means of communication cut off, they are, to the number of two thousand literally starving. This is a very shocking revelation.—No one can realize, but every one can form some conception of the horrors of such a situation—imprisonment on a rock with disease and want to do their very worst."

GENERAL NEWS.

Clarence Prentice, late of the Louisville Journal, is now en route to Texas, where he proposes to fix his habitation.

Acclimated persons in New Orleans are enjoying good health, but others newly arrived are often seized by a very annoying, if not dangerous ailment, known by physicians as dengue, or "break-bone fever."

Another great artesian well, flowing 20,000 gallons daily, was struck at Chicago last week. Its diameter is five inches, though the intention is to enlarge it to 20 inches, at which size it will have a discharge capacity of 17,000,000 gallons daily.

Enquiry having recently been made as to the whereabouts of the camels which the Government had in Texas before the war, the St. Louis Republican answers that Maj. Gen Curtis, of Iowa, appropriated two of them which were recently on his farm.

Lord Palmerston was buried in Westminster Abbey on the 27th ult., with all the pomp of a state funeral and in the presence of an immense throng, comprising nearly all the most distinguished persons in the kingdom. The Empress Eugenie had addressed a private letter of condolence to Lady Palmerston.

The proposed reconstruction of the Cabinet with Russell at the head of affairs meets with a cold welcome from the London press. The arrangement is only accepted till a better can be made.

Arrests of supposed Fenians on board American ships continued. The latest capture effected by the British government was a supposed correspondent of the New York Tribune, in whose possession were found a note book and a revolver. All three were detained by the police.

Two ship loads of Freedmen lately left the James River for Liberia.

Another negro Convention is being held at Indianapolis, Ind. They had better be at work. Conventions are very poor pay and we regret to see the Africans engaging in them.

The Republicans have carried New York State and in New Jersey, although the result on the State ticket is still in doubt, a republican majority has unquestionably been returned to the legislature, by which the ratification by that State of the slavery prohibition amendment to the national constitution is secured.

Massachusetts, Wisconsin and Minnesota which also have lately elected State officers went largely for the republicans, as was of course anticipated. General Banks is among the Congressmen elect in Massachusetts.

In Maryland an election was held for county officers and to fill certain Congressional, legislative and judicial vacancies. Mr. Thomas, the republican candidate for Congress in the Second district, composed of the first seven wards of Baltimore city and Harford county, was successful.

THE TRIAL OF JEFF. DAVIS.

COMPLETE ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE CASE.
WASHINGTON, NOV. 7, 1865.

The President yesterday received a numerous delegation of ladies from Baltimore, deputed to present a petition signed by fifteen thousand ladies, seeking the Executive clemency in behalf of Jefferson Davis. Mrs. Coleman, daughter of the late lamented John J. Crittenden, addressed the President in feeling and appropriate terms, to which he responded in a most felicitous manner, regretting that public policy prevented his yielding to their persuasive and touching arguments.

The interview was a protracted one, and of the most agreeable character, and the fair petitioners left the cit carrying with them the most pleasurable impressions of the President. In declining, the President regretted that the national character of the question restrained all private sympathy which they might have awakened in him, and made the important statement that complete arrangements have been made for the early loyal trial of Mr. Davis, according to the laws of the land.

JEFF. DAVIS' NEW OVERCOAT.

Jeff Davis' new overcoat was sent down to Fortress Monroe to-day. The garment is an expensive one, made in accordance with Davis' fine taste in matters of dress, and is paid for.
